

Chuck Seeger

Director of Land Use & Entitlements

seeger@onlinelandplanning.com

Chuck Seeger has 24 years of experience in land development, master planning and entitlements for corporate, institutional, educational, retail, entertainment and mixed use projects worldwide. With strong business relationships within the architecture, planning, engineering, construction, regulatory and brokerage industries, Chuck has created and managed complex development teams throughout the United States. His solid leadership and management skills provides key support for the OLP's overall growth objectives including implementing and supervising internal controls, handling projects with major financial impacts, cultivating partnerships to increase revenue sources and driving major strategic initiatives.

Master of Business Administration in Strategic Management,
Peter F. Drucker Graduate Management Center, Claremont Graduate University
Engineering and Management Program, University of California, Los Angeles
Bachelor of Science in Architecture, California State Polytechnic University, Pomona