

Dalan Garcia

Director of Graphic Design, Technology & Brand Communication

garcia@onlinelandplanning.com

Dalan Garcia has over 15 years of graphic design and publishing experience in a wide variety of media. He has created and developed detailed brand strategies for multimillion dollar land companies that have specialize in new community development throughout the United States. Dalan is responsible for the graphic design, logos identity and the final documentation for all OLP projects and making sure that the quality and consistency is through for each assignment. He designed and manages the OLP website in responsible for the promotion of the brand throughout the real estate industry. Dalan coordinates the online database and web links to advertisers and manages the technology backbone for the virtual company to keep the caliber of the work and production high and the overhead low so we can pass the savings along to our clients.

Bachelor of Fine Arts in Graphic Design, California State University at Fullerton
Adobe Certified Expert in Adobe Photoshop CS