

Haresh Vibhakar, AIA

Architect

Haresh has worked in a multitude of roles in the last two decades, split evenly between India and the United States. He had the opportunity to work on projects by two Pritzker award winning architects, and was involved with adaptive reuse of warehouse buildings in the historic district of downtown Durham, NC.

He is passionate about hospitality developments and was part of the team working on the world's largest hotel in Las Vegas. Haresh also took a lead role in the development of international mid-market hotel prototypes for a leading hotel chain. He is currently involved in various mid-market hospitality developments totaling over 600 keys.
