

Michael L. Chasteen, AIA

Entertainment and Resort Architect

Michael L. Chasteen, AIA.- With over thirty years of professional experience as a registered architect, Michael has a comprehensive knowledge of land development projects with a special emphasis on the design of entertainment, resort and theme parks. He has participated in the design of many high profile projects while employed by the internationally acclaimed architectural firm of Skidmore, Owings & Merrill and as a Senior Concept Architect for Walt Disney Imagineering. As founding Principal of Studio213 in Beverly Hills, California; he continues to work collaboratively on project throughout the world.

Professional Registrations:

Arizona, California, Colorado, Georgia, Idaho, Kansas, Missouri, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, New York and Wyoming.

Bachelor of Science in Environmental Design, University of Kansas

Bachelor of Arts in Architecture, University of Kansas