

Steve Patterson

Development Entitlements & Project Management

patterson@onlinelandplanning.com

Steve Patterson is an expert in leading multi-disciplinary teams through development, master planning, entitlements, contracts, design and construction on a wide variety of international projects. His global relationships and experience include green development, urban infill, mixed use, resort hotels and master planned communities. He has held senior positions with Centex Destination Properties, Medallist (Greg Norman) Golf Developments and Vice President of Development for Ritz Carlton / Marriott International.

Bachelor of Architecture, Woodbury University, Los Angeles, CA