

Theo van Veenendaal

Retail Development Manager

Theo is a senior development manager and has been involved in the delivery of over US $2B of retail properties in Australia over the last three decades. Theo has managed the total development process from inception to delivery and the help mitigate risks associated with large, complex projects. Theo has worked for many prominent retail development companies in Australia including Westfield and Lend Lease.

Bachelor of Engineering (Civil) University of Melbourne